

ASTRO MAN

AND THE STOLEN STAR MAP

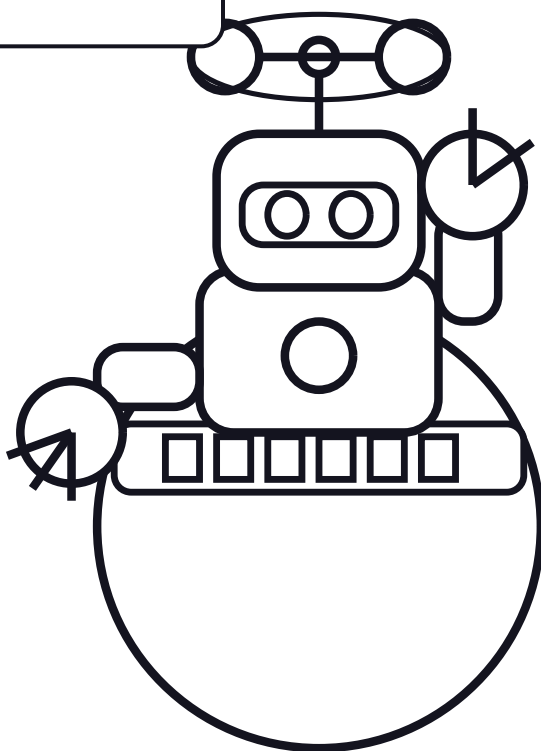

A 13-page comic coloring book
Characters created for this issue: Pulsar • Comet • Voidrix

A shy mapmaker. A loyal dog. A comet friend. A gravity thief. Color their first Earth mission.

MEET ASTRO MAN

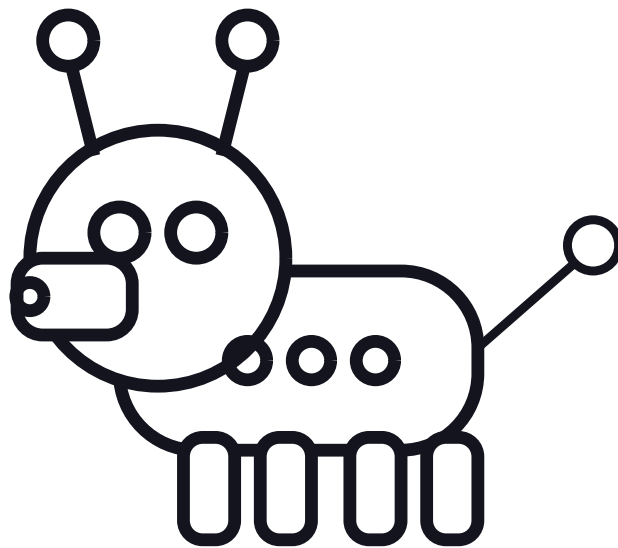

Hello, Earth. Please do not stare. I am only slightly heroic.

Power: fold-space hops. Hobby: naming unnamed moons.

He was built to map the stars. He can fold space, hide in nebulae, and blush behind a visor.

BEEP-BEEP. Translation: I have found the snack compartment.

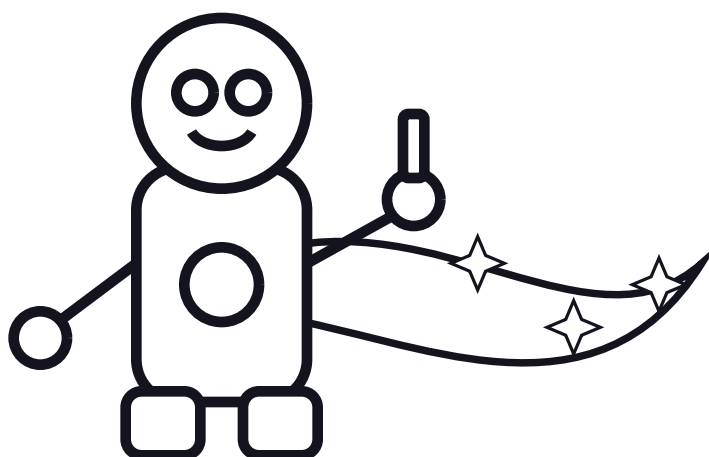

signal-bone

Pulsar tracks lost signals with his antenna ears. He cannot bark. He beeps in Morse. Good boy.

MEET COMET • FRIEND

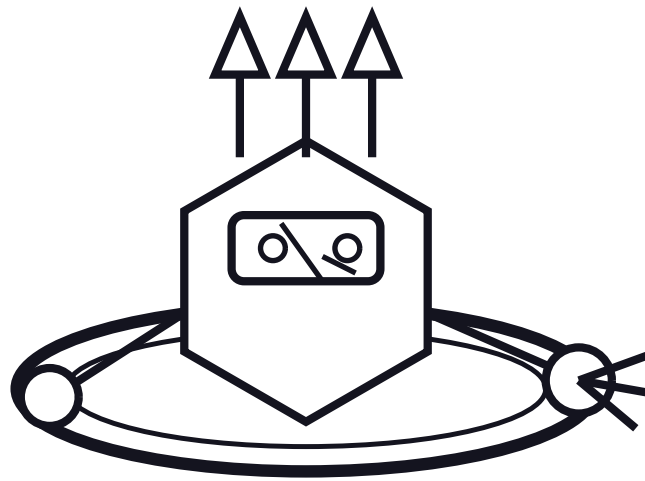

*Maps are fine. Friends who fold space are better.
Also, your propeller is loose.*

Comet repairs anything with a wrench and a joke. Her scarf is made of leftover starlight.

~~MEET VOIDRIX • FOE~~

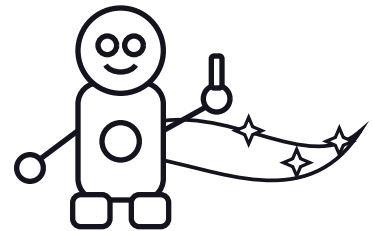

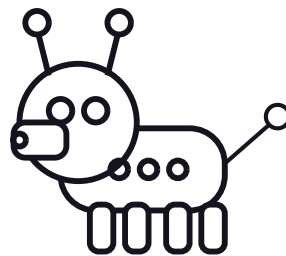

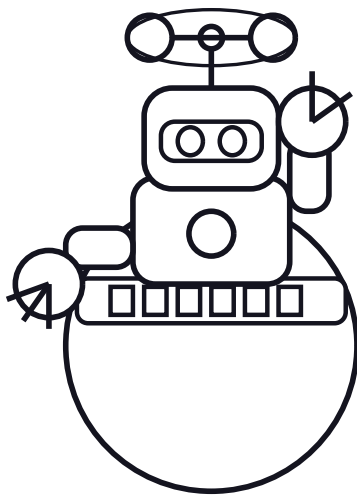

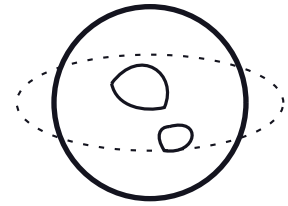

Give me the atlas, little lantern. The universe is quieter when it is lost.

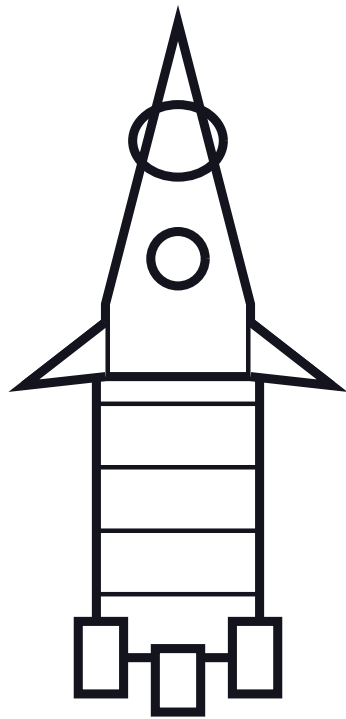

Weakness: kindness. Also, his ring itches.

Voidrix the Gravity Baron collects maps so no one else can find their way home. He hates nicknames.

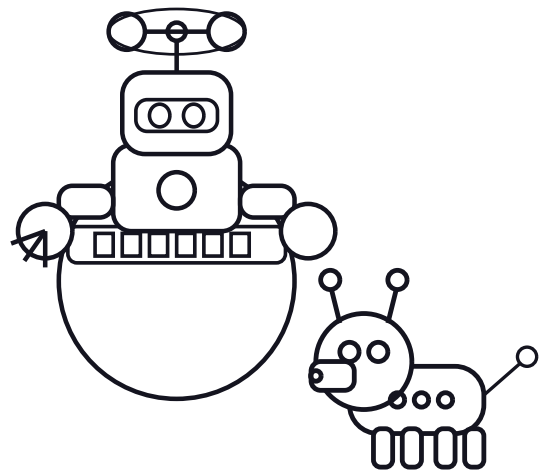

Destination: Earth. Purpose: deliver the last honest star map.

Astro Man leaves the outer dark. Pulsar rides shotgun. Comet packed extra bolts.

~~SPACEY IS MY RIDE~~

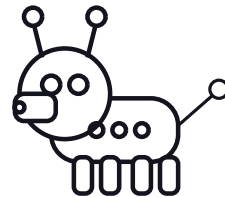

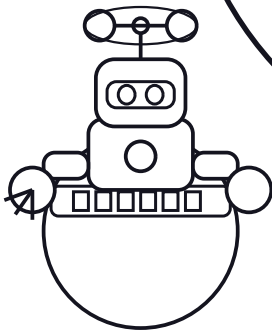

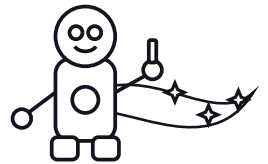

*To the Moon, Mars, and beyond. I will sit very still.
I promise.*

A tall steel bird waits on a Texas pad. Astro Man is shy about boarding. Pulsar is not.

~~EARTH, AT LAST~~

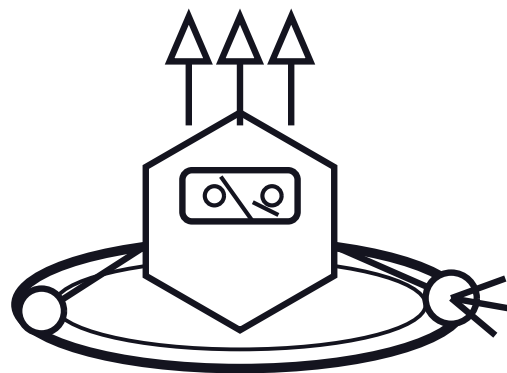

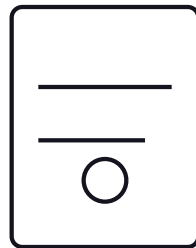

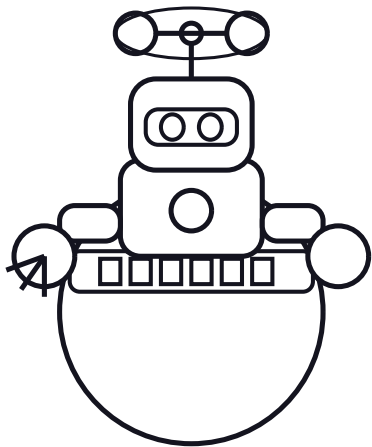

So many lights. Which ones are cities, and which ones are birthdays?

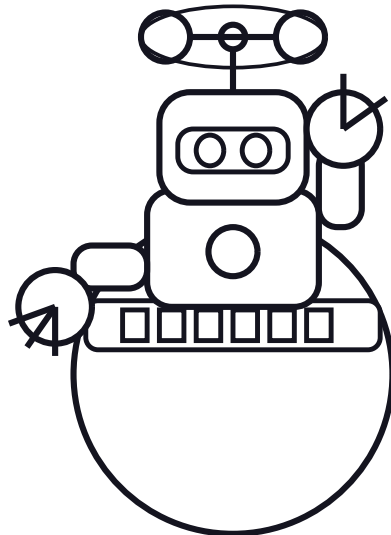

Blue, loud, and full of unlabeled weather. Astro Man hides behind a cloud. Pulsar does not.

THE MAP IS TAKEN

That map has every kind road home. Voidrix, put it down.

No. Lost things stay lost.

~~METEOR STORM~~

Follow the bright ones, Pulsar. Leave the mean ones to me.

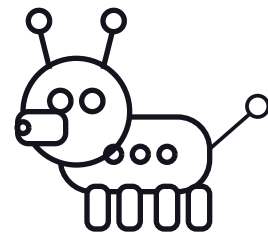

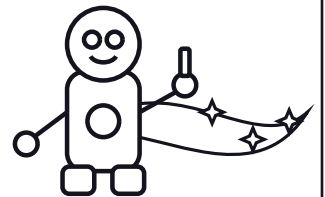

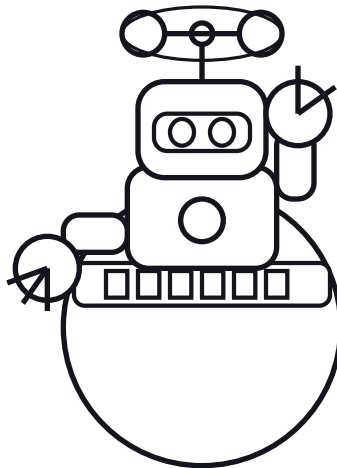

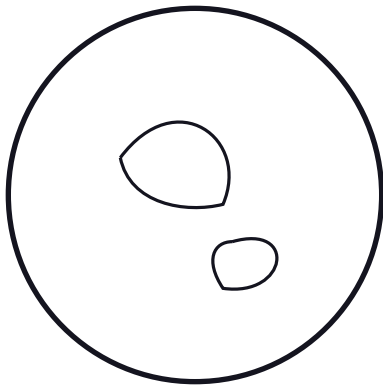

Now, Comet! The ring is only jewelry if it stays on.

HOME LIGHTS

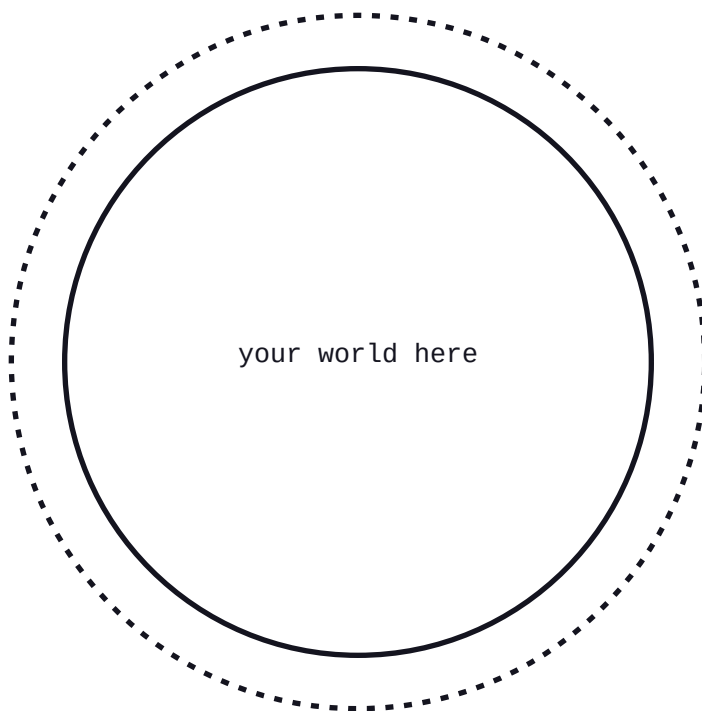

You may color the sky kind tonight. The map says we made it.

The map is returned. Earth keeps its names. Voidrix is offered tea. He declines. For now.
